

GIS Platform

easymap mobile is a customer application that makes available maps and geographic information on mobile devices.

easymap mobile

When the computer is not available, the mobile is our best option.

The use of easymap mobile for delivery of content and services has an enormous impact, with an area of Great current development and future.

All information contained in easymap whether information from the Geographic Information System, the city map and the map of the transport network, is available on the mobile user. The software can be installed on the mobile and the information can be found several times without additional costs at anytime and anywhere.

easymap mobile

The interface is simple to use, contains detailed information and updated with just one click. The easymap mobile is available to all and allows consulting important information about the city, in a way so practical and familiarly like mobile, reaching more than 70% of mobile market.

/ objectives

It is intended that the information is always updated and available to the customer, so that he gets more satisfaction because in the case of a personal device and easy to use, information can be found several times without additional costs, anytime and anywhere.

/ features

- Zoom, layers, pan, routes, locations, geocoding and reverse coding;
- Search points of interest and routes/paths, through pop-ups and information Windows from which you can view and add location and detailed information on each point of interest;
- Integration with Social Network;
- Compatible with mobiles with Java support;
- Install Over The Air.

somos soluções

address

/ Instituto Pedro Nunes
Rua Pedro Nunes, 3030-199 Coimbra

telephone

/ +351 239 403 843

email

/ info@easyclick.pt

site

/ www.easyclick.pt

